

Autodesk

GET CONNECTED AND ACCELERATE
YOUR TIME TO MARKET

“ The fact that we’re able to achieve so much of what we want to on our own, it really enables us to think bigger.”

– MICHAEL PARES, SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER, GREENPOINT TECHNOLOGIES

Autodesk PLM 360 offers powerful product lifecycle management capabilities that can help make your product development processes more efficient and speed your time to market. But to get the true value out of your PLM investment you need to seamlessly connect the data, processes and people involved in creating, selling, and servicing your products.

Jitterbit offers Autodesk customers a powerful-yet-simple solution for quickly connecting product lifecycle processes with other critical business applications including ERP and CRM systems. By connecting Autodesk with other cloud and on-premise systems you can eliminate manual data entry including bill of materials, design, and requirements, and automate common business processes such as change management. Instead of looking for product information in multiple places and sorting through spreadsheets, companies using Jitterbit can access a single version of the truth about their products and keep designers and engineers focused.

Jitterbit includes predefined connections between Autodesk PLM 360 and commonly used apps, and powers the “evented web” framework that makes it easy to connect Autodesk with commonly used systems that range from Slack to SQL Server.
